

PHI THETA KAPPA
HONOR SOCIETY

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend to you Brian Lorick, a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, the premier honor society recognizing the academic achievement of college students and helping them grow as scholars and leaders. Since its founding in 1918, Phi Theta Kappa has inducted more than 4.3 million members and chartered 1,250 chapters located in 11 nations.

Brian was inducted into the Alpha Zeta Beta Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa while attending Tri-County Technical College and demonstrated leadership abilities by:

Serving as valued member of his chapter.

Brian's invitation to join Phi Theta Kappa was a testament to his unwavering commitment to achieving and maintaining academic excellence at his college where he stood among the top 10% of students in the nation.

Membership in the Society reflects discipline, determination, and an innate desire to succeed. Active involvement demonstrates a commitment to servant leadership, scholarship, and fellowship.

Community college students, like Brian, are fearless learners, endlessly adaptable, and remarkably determined. They are the dreamers and the doers. As a member of Phi Theta Kappa, Brian exemplifies the best of what community colleges have to offer.

We applaud Brian's academic achievements and look forward to witnessing his accomplishments in the future.

Sincerely,
